Law Student Study on Implicit Racial Bias in Attorney Negotiations

“Black men are often seen in a negative light so I think people put me in the ‘negative bucket’ even though I’m an attorney.”
- African-American attorney

“I observed lawyers being unusually critical of my arguments.”
- Latino attorney
The Ladders Of Success

Overcoming Internal/External Barriers to Leadership

- Imposter Syndrome
- Implicit/Unconscious Bias
- Lack of Mentors/Sponsors
- Tokenism
  - Symbolic effort to be inclusive by including a token minority employee to create the impression of diversity and deflect accusations of discrimination.
- Burnout by “Cultural Taxation” / “Minority Tax” / “Emotional Tax”
Overcoming Internal/External Barriers to Leadership

- Imposter Syndrome
  - Individuals having a persistent fear of being exposed as a “fraud” and an inability to internalize their accomplishments.

- Implicit/Unconscious Bias
  - Discrimination and incorrect judgments occur due to stereotyping, which can occur automatically without the person being aware of it.

- Waiting To Lead?
  - How to know if you are ready.

THE UPS & DOWNS OF LEADERSHIP
BEING A HERO AND UNDER THE MICROSCOPE
“Cultural Taxation” – unique burden placed on diverse lawyers in carrying out responsibility for service to the law firm/company.

“Minority Tax” – additional responsibilities placed on diverse lawyers to achieve diversity.

“Emotional Tax” – psychological burden of being “on guard”, consciously preparing to deal with potential bias or discrimination at work.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

- A paradox – an approach to leadership that runs counter to common sense.
  - Leaders influence, servants follow is the old adage.

- Today, that is not the case. The world is in desperate need of a different leadership role model.
  - We have all seen the negative impact of self-serving leaders in every sector of our society, especially in 2018.
  - Gone are the days where leaders are thought of to have all the power and control.

- Servant Leadership emphasizes that leaders be attentive to concerns of their followers, empathize with them and nurture them.

- Servant Leaders put followers FIRST, empower them & help them develop.

  - Many organizations in the Fortune 500 employ ideas from servant leadership (Starbucks, AT&T, Southwest Airlines, The Container Store, Marriott, Nordstrom’s, AND Vanguard Group).

  "True leadership must be for the benefit of the followers, not to enrich the leader."
  - John C. Maxwell

Final Notes --

This presentation should not be considered or construed as legal advice on any individual matter or circumstance – instead it has hopefully provided you insight into how you can be a better leader and help others to do so as well.

The distribution of this presentation or its content is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship. We suspect you knew that. But it never hurts to make certain we’re all on the same page.

The views set forth herein are the personal views of the panelists and do not necessarily reflect their organizations. With that said, the panelists are all proud to work at organizations that recognize the value of diversity and inclusion and work to support those values.
